

Think on Your Feet® Program

Organise your thoughts quickly and communicate effectively under pressure

Think On Your Feet® is a powerful communication course used by some of the world's most influential leaders and Fortune 500 companies globally. It trains you to analyse, organise and present on your feet. You'll learn advanced communication techniques to transform the way you engage.

Think on Your Feet® is the only workshop focused on informal communication situations, providing skills to present and defend positions persuasively and FAST!

This customisable workshop will teach you:

Clarity

Present ideas clearly, concisely and memorably.

Brevity

Structure topics in bite-sized chunks for easy retention.

Impact

Get positive results using the best communication strategy per situation.

Pricing and details

Two-day course
- virtual or face-to-face

Member: $995 including GST

Retail: $1325 including GST

What is covered?

Think on Your Feet® introduces ten structures that help visualise and organise ideas quickly – even under extreme pressure - using three communication strategies:

INFORMATIVE

Package information logically and succinctly.

ASSERTIVE

Position ideas to persuade your audience.

VISUAL

Appeal to your audience with images and analogies.

Who is it for?

Ideal for managers, executives, leaders, and team members who need to be clear, convincing, and memorable when speaking to others in both impromptu discussions and formal prepared communications.

Enquire Now

info@managersandleaders.com.au

1300 362 631